

Looking for something? Maybe your pen?

Well, we searched and searched. And the effort paid off. We found it...a unique pen with a built-in hole right in the cap! Attach the pen to a lanyard or chain, and you'll always know where your pen is. Not only that, but it writes great too!! Try it...You'll like it.

Now the boring stuff...

- New, low-viscosity ink formula writes smooth like gel with the benefits of quick-drying ball point ink.
 - Writes vivid fine lines with a stainless steel tip.
 - Latex-free rubber grip offers extended writing comfort.
- Handy eyelets in the barrel plug and cap let you hang on a chain or cord for better mobility.

No more lost pens or caps.

Available in fine and medium point. (Sorry. Lanyards are not included.)
